

Sign up Now!!!

The Massachusetts Chapter of Association for the Advancement of Social Work with Groups (AASWG, Inc.)
proudly presents:

Thinking Outside the Circle:
Staying True to Social Group Work While Being Adaptive

Friday, March 9th, 2012

9:00 am-3:45 pm

Simmons College School of Management
300 the Fenway

Featuring the Boston University School of Social Work
Keynote Speaker:

Ariel Allena Botta, MSW, LICSW

Interactive Workshops include:

- Hugo Kamyra presenting Spirituality, Narrative and Group Work with Sudanese Refugees and Immigrants
- The Campfire Group: Support Group for Adolescents Who Have Lost Siblings
- Luz Lopes presents Working Through Addictions in Groups
- The BU Hoarding Project presents Hoarding Groups
- AND MORE!!!

Register online: www.aaswgma.org

Register by check: P.O. Box 1968 Brookline, MA 02446

- Light Breakfast & Lunch included with registration fee
- Approved for 4 CEUs!
- Send four+ from same agency, free CEUs! (pay by check only)
- Discounted parking available at Simmons (Ave. Louis Pasteur Garage)

